EDNTA Data Protection Policy

We collect addresses, phone numbers and email addresses from members, which are retained by the Association for the purpose of being able to contact members concerning their membership and to provide them with information. We only record information that members have provided, and it will only be retained for the duration of an individual's membership of the Association. The data collected is for the use of Association officers only and will not be sold or passed on to any third party.

This data is administered by the Membership Secretary, and copies are also supplied and retained by the Secretary. The Chairman retains a copy of the email address list of members, for the purposes indicated above. This data is stored as printed copy by the Membership Secretary, and on the personal computers of the officers named above. The data held on computer is password and anti-virus protected. The data is also available to any event organiser who needs to verify members details. In this instance the data will only be held for so long as it is needed and will not be retained indefinitely.

Your Rights

You have the right to opt out of having any or all of your personal contact information retained, and should contact the Membership Secretary in this regard if you wish to opt out of us holding any part of your details. You need to note that this could make it difficult for the Association to provide you with information about its activities.
